

Color War - Week 8 July 22, 2022

DIRECTOR'S CORNER

Every summer we look forward to Color War week! This year was no different. How wonderful it was to see the comraderies between both teams as they competed each day. The excitement, the energy, the RUACH!!!! More than any year I am so impressed with the sportsmanship displayed by both teams. A very special Mazel Tov to our Generals and Lieutenants, who led their teams with such grace and passion. Thank you, Angelica, Emily, Josh, Jeremy, Justin and Zoe; we are proud of you!

Color War Family Night was an amazing culmination to the games. As camp leaders, there is nothing more special for us than seeing our campers pass on their love of camp to their families. And we love our Camp Shalom families! Thank you for helping us show your children the benefit of friendly competition, true spirit, and love for the friends at their summer home. A big shout out to all of you who participated in the tug-o-war and relay race, dressed in your campers' team colors and decorated their cars with signs and streamers! This is a big part of what makes our camp unique.

We would like to thank all our friends who are leaving us today and hope you enjoyed your time at camp. We would love to see you at for our School's Out and Vacation Camps during the school year. Visit our website at www.jcconline.com to learn more!

Shabbat Shalom and have a restful weekend!!
